Part-66 AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE LICENCE - APPLICATION FOR WRITTEN EXAMINATION GUIDANCE

General Guidance

- 1) Use this form to apply to sit any of the following:
 - Part-66 written modular examination papers
 - Part-66 essay examination papers
 - Conversion examinations from a BCAR Section L Licence
 - Examinations for extension to Part-66 basic licence categories
- 2) You should read the requirements of Part-66 before completing this form. Information on the Part-66 licence and examinations is available on our website www.part66.co.uk
- 3) Examination bookings cannot be amended in the week before the examination. Cancellations will only be accepted if received in writing at least ten working days before the examination. Refund of examination fees for emergency cancellations or non attendance will only be given if a valid medical certificate is provided.
- 4) A transfer fee is payable for the refund or transfer of fees or when an examination has been rearranged at the request of the applicant.
- 5) Applications must be received no less than three weeks prior to the examination date stated in part 2.

Section 8 Declaration

Part-66, Appendix II, 1.11 states "All Part-66 modules that make up a complete Part-66 aircraft maintenance licence category or sub category must be passed within a 10 year time period of passing the first module except in the case specified in paragraph 1.12. A failed module may not be re-taken for at least 90 days following the date of the failed module examination, except in the case of a Part-147 maintenance training organization approved course which conducts a course of retraining tailored to the failed subjects in the particular module when the failed module may be re-taken after 30 days".

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE ABOVE WILL RESULT IN YOUR APPLICATION BEING RETURNED.

Section 9 Submission Instructions

Candidates applying for approved examinations, with or without modular training, must provide a good copy of a photographic identification with their application, preferably a passport.

The photographic identification must be certified by an appropriate person with the statement "I certify this to be a true copy", with a signature and name in block capitals, and date of signing.

The original photographic identification must be produced prior to entry to the examination. Those candidates who cannot produce photographic identification will not be allowed to enter the examination room.
